

DOLLS IN DEMAND

At the Unique Affair Given by Ladies of St. Matthew's Church.

ALL SORTS AND CONDITIONS

Of Dolls Found a Ready Sale, and the Affair was a Huge Financial Success, and Afforded No Little Amusement—The Arion's Kaffee Visits Last Night was the First of the 1899-1900 Season.

Dolls! Little dolls! Fancy dolls! Comic dolls and other dolls!

All at the doll baby show given in St. Matthew's P. E. church basement last evening.

The little folks raved over the dolls. Their elders went into ecstasies likewise. And the 100 mimic men and women were sold like hot cakes and at the present writing are adorning the mantels in sundry homes. It was a clever conceit of the ladies to give this kind of an affair, and their efforts were handsomely rewarded. The show was a huge success in every respect, and it afforded no end of amusement for the large attendance.

The dolls were exhibited in their many forms and colors from a large table in the centre of the room. There were small editions of Dewey, Sampson, Schley, Rough Riders, regular soldiers, gallant lords and fair dames, dolls both fancy and grotesquely attired. Circling the room were small refreshment tables from which gastronomic entertainment was dispensed, and the enjoyable function was on from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. The doll sale produced lively bidding and every doll was knocked down at a handsome figure.

The event was indirectly a farewell to Rev. and Mrs. N. S. Thomas, who leave in a few weeks for Philadelphia. It was under the auspices of the second division of the ladies of St. Matthew's parish guild, the following officiating: Mesdames B. W. Peterson, H. H. Quarrier, W. A. Milligan, Lewis Steenrod, W. Irving Singleton, W. B. McMechea, C. Howard Simpson, F. P. Jones and Miss Madge Johnson.

The first kaffee-visite of the 1899-1900 season was given by the ladies of the Arion last night, at Arion hall. It was an auspicious opening and guarantees a treat in store throughout the cooler months, as these events are of monthly recurrence. The attendance was confined strictly to the Arion membership, which embrace young and old, and it was thus a large family gathering.

Supper was served from 5 to 6 p. m. to the children, and from the latter hour to 9 p. m. to their elders. Dancing in the ballroom was a feature until shortly before midnight, when the affair concluded. Professor Killmeyer furnished the torchlight inspiration.

The ladies in charge were as follows: Mesdames F. C. H. Schwetfeger, president; Christ. Hess, F. Rieker, F. C. Diefhorst, Theo. Reller, William Kirchbach, Henry Biebersen, C. W. Appenzeller, F. J. Diegmiller, Franz Laupp, Henry C. Meyer, Peter Welty, Ferd. Dietrich, A. C. Schneider, Misses Rosa Hienner, Emma Zocher, Nellie Schmidt, Dorothea Morgan, Annie Hoffman.

The Arion will give a Thanksgiving ball, Wednesday evening, November 29. It will be for members only.

To-night, at the Carroll Club, a meeting of the ladies' social section will be held to complete the organization. All the members of the club who have not already entered their names are urged to attend. Arrangements will be completed for the box social, to be held next Thursday evening, in the auditorium.

STOGIE IS KING.

Second Best Month in the History of the Industry in Wheeling—Large Increase in Internal Revenue Collections.

October was the second best month in the history of the stogie-making industry in Wheeling. September, 1899, was the banner month, with a production of 6,510,800 stogies, while October comes along only 2,260 less, or 6,508,540 stogies. The manufacturers are working all the men they can secure, and the product would be heavier if the skilled labor were not so scarce. The following table shows the monthly production since January, 1899:

Month	Tax	Stogies
January	$15,730 25	4,329,620
February	14,901 35	3,272,600
March	15,157 31	4,496,500
April	15,777 60	5,215,000
May	20,038 09	5,812,900
June	21,662 35	6,038,470
July	21,065 67	6,001,090
August	23,256 45	6,466,190
September	23,438 55	6,510,800
October	23,432 09	6,508,540

The internal revenue collections in Wheeling for October show an increase of $11,690, as compared with the previous month, September. The largest increase was in tobacco, and ninety-nine per cent of the revenue collected here under this class comes from the Bloch Brothers' Tobacco Company, makers of the Mail Pouch tobacco. The following table tells the tale:

Classes	Sept.	Oct.
Tobacco	$33,715	$46,437
Beer	11,235	10,191
Cigars (Stogies)	23,432	23,432
Totals	$68,382	$80,060
Increase		$11,690

Wheeling Bird's-Eye View.

Mr. J. B. Moyer, of the Arm of Downs, Fowler & Moyer, of Boston, is in the city taking orders for a new bird's eye view of Greater Wheeling, which they have just placed on the market. It is the most comprehensive view of the city and surrounding communities ever published, and is meeting with a ready sale here. The view shows Fulton, Wheeling, the Island, etc. It was made from a number of sketches by Mr. A. E. Downs, secured last summer.

Evangelist Randall Sick.

Rev. G. Randall, the street evangelist, who has read 1,192 chapters of the Bible on the streets of Wheeling and Bridgeport this week has been compelled to suspend his work at least temporarily, owing to the great physical strain in walking long distances. He says he may find it necessary to go to a smaller place, owing to the noise of the city making it difficult for him to find peace of body or mind. His work is maintained by contributions, which he will receive with gratitude.

GILL'S MAJORITY GROWS

And is Now Placed at the 4,234 Mark, Where It is Sure to Stay—Largest Majority on Record in Jefferson County—Official Belmont Majorities.

Congressman-elect Joseph J. Gill's majority in the over-the-river district is quite a healthy giant, if you please. Yesterday morning it was around the 3,500 point; then it was quoted at 4,000 or more, and now it finally rounds up at 4,234, where it will probably stand. The increase is owing to the unprecedented majority Mr. Gill received in his own county of Jefferson, 3,204, which is far and away better than any other candidate in any campaign ever received there. It shows how well Mr. Gill stands in his home community, and that he must have received the votes of hundreds of Democrats. Carroll county, too, goes up a notch, her majority being increased from 700 to 959. The summary is as follows:

Counties	Gill	Spence
Belmont	3,204	2,688
Carroll	959	700
Harrison	865	700
Jefferson	3,204	2,688
Monroe	2,088	1,500
Totals	6,232	5,676

Gill's majority, 4,234. Mr. Spence's Martin's Ferry friends say the Democratic committee in Jefferson county secretly supported Gill. It looks that way, sure enough. Wonder if their Gill-ty conscience troubles them?

The official majorities in Belmont county were announced yesterday, as follows:

STEEL BARS UP $5 A TON.

Even at These Figures it is Impossible to Obtain Any for Quick Delivery.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 9.—The price of steel bars was advanced in Pittsburgh to-day from $2.50 per 100 pounds to $2.75 for prompt delivery. This means an increase of $5 per ton. Even at these figures it is almost impossible to obtain steel bars for use any time prior to the first of the coming year. For delivery in the second quarter of 1900, a price of $2.30 per 100 pounds is asked.

There has been very little buying, or selling of any kind in iron and steel this week, owing to the fact that the capacity of the steel mills and blast furnaces is sold out entirely for the remainder of the year and the only orders that are given at the gilt-edged prices demanded by manufacturers are those of an emergency nature. Iron and steel sellers to-day predicted a quiet market until the latter part of the year, and that no contracts of importance will be made until into the new year.

Iron Molders' Conference.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 9.—A conference between a special committee representing the National Founders' Association and the executive committee of the Iron Molders' Union of America began here to-day. The exact nature of the questions under consideration has not been made public, but is said to be a question of wages. At the morning session the dispute at Moline, Ill., was settled. The afternoon session was devoted to a discussion of the best means of preventing disagreements leading to strikes.

Queer Way to Joke.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—John Shindler was probably fatally burned here to-day through an intended joke. Two fellow workmen bound him with a tarred rope, and after lighting it left the room, thinking it would burn slowly. In an instant the prisoner was a mass of flames. The cord burst in two, and he ran screaming into an adjoining room, where other workmen tore the flaming clothing from him. Charles Decker and Alvin Chudyski were arrested. They said that as Shindler was a new man they merely wished to initiate him.

Which Way?

Are the children growing nicely? A little stronger each month? A trifle heavier? That's good.

Or is one of them growing the other way? Growing weaker, growing thinner, growing paler?

If so, you should try Scott's Emulsion at once. 'Tis both a food and a medicine to all delicate children. It makes them grow in the right way—taller, stronger, healthier.

ARE REINSTATED.

West Virginia State Prison Board Takes Action in CASES OF SUSPENDED GUARDS.

One of Them, Tol Neal, of Huntington, Then Tendered His Resignation, Which Was Accepted—Directors and Warden Hawk Go to Pittsburgh to Buy Prison Supplies. Several Contracts Awarded.

The board of directors of the penitentiary, which has been in session since Tuesday morning, completed its work yesterday morning and adjourned until the next regular meeting. The board had the work of two months to look after, which accounts for so long a session.

The following contracts were let for the ensuing six months:

Meat—Stilwell & Gamble, of Moundsville.

Meal—Brown & Riggs, of Moundsville.

Flour—Mr. Cartwright, of Caldwell.

Cartwright's bid on flour was fifty cents less per barrel than any other bid received.

Guards Moore, Henry, Neal and Dunn, against whom charges had been brought, were acquitted and reinstated. Neal afterwards resigned.

Directors Scherr and Gilkeson and Warden Hawk left yesterday afternoon for Pittsburgh, where they will purchase an outfit for the new kitchen.

AMUSEMENTS.

"A Ragtime Reception," the laughable, musical, mix-up, is one of roar and laughter from the start to finish, and will be presented at the Opera House to-night and to-morrow night. It is a bright, happy musical melange, complete in funny sayings, amusing complications, incidental to the play. The company number twenty people, including Miss Edith Kingsley, Mr. Gus Pixley, the famous tramp comedian, Miss Gladys Van, the New York actress, London music hall character artist, J. G. Odell, baritone; J. B. Murphy, the DeVauls, Williams and Birdie, in the principal characters, supported by Helen George, Ruth Jordan, May Landworth, Lillian Roberts, Olive North, Bertha Wilson and Richard Conn under the well known management of Graham and Bromilow. A special matinee will be given Saturday afternoon.

"Zaza."

"Zaza," the great play David Belasco adapted from the French, will be presented by Charles Frohman's company, at the Opera House Tuesday evening, November 14. This play has proved the dramatic triumph of the century. Since early in last season it has filled the Garrick theatre in New York, full to overflowing at every performance. Mr. Belasco has carefully selected the company of twenty-five artists who will present the play in this city. All of the scenery and properties which contributed so largely to the great success of the play in New York, will be introduced in its production here. The company has for months been rehearsing under the personal tuition and direction of Mr. Belasco, and everyone who knows what a master of stagecraft, and of the art of acting Mr. Belasco is, will know that these facts will insure an excellent rendition of the different parts in the play.

The Play That's the Thing.

One of the best plays dealing with Yankee life and character, is "A Country Merchant," which will be seen at the Grand Opera House, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with the talented comedian, Mr. Charles Cowles, in the star part. The production is said to be on a splendid scale, the scene settings being particularly realistic, and the interesting story of the play will be well told by a clever company of players. Musical and special novelties will be furnished in abundance, and altogether a magnificent treat is in store for the large audience which is confidently expected.

A Hindoo Novelty.

One of the most novel as well as incomprehensible features in Magician Kellar's programme this year, is a quaint time piece, which is known as the "Hindoo Clock." It was once the property of a famed magician in India and it does all sorts of strange things. It consists solely of a glass dial and one brass band. Yet it will answer any question almost that may be asked. It tells the day of the week upon which you were born, time by your own watch, dates of coins, value and numbers of bank bills, does sums in arithmetic, etc., etc. It is but an item, however, in a long series of surprises that Kellar will offer when he comes to the Opera House, Monday, November 12.

Bostonia Sextette Coming.

One of the leading musical events of the season will be the concert by the Bostonia Sextette Club, at the Opera House, Monday evening, November 20. This excellent string sextette will be assisted by Miss Helen Wehnore, a soprano soloist of high rank. The leader of the club is Mr. Staats, formerly of Sousa's band, and the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Staats is unrivalled as a clarinet soloist. Mr. Fries, the cello soloist, has long been a favorite of the American public. Mr. Land, the violin soloist, is an artist of the highest excellence. The programme will include popular and classical numbers expressly arranged for the club. The concert will be of more than usual interest and merit.

Gibneys at the Grand.

Mr. Morgan Gibney's own play "Angie, the Country Girl," a charming comedy drama, was presented to a large and appreciative audience at the Grand last night, by the Gibney-Hoefler company. The specialties of De Hallis and Valora, Billy Stanford, Fred Godding, and MacMillan and Gray, were heartily enjoyed. The same play will be produced this afternoon, and to-night's bill will be "The Woman in Black," which created such a favorable impression Tuesday night.

Killed by Beggars.

TORONTO, Nov. 9.—J. E. Varcoe, a grocer of Queen street, was shot and killed by beggars early to-day. After the shooting the beggars jumped from a second story window and one of them named Williams was stunned. The other named McIntosh, was shot by a constable, badly wounded and may die. Both were held for murder.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MANNINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 9.—Hon. James H. Furbee, one of our oldest and most distinguished citizens, and well known through the state, died at an early hour this morning, of stomach trouble. He had only been sick since last Sunday morning, and his family and friends did not become alarmed at his condition until noon yesterday, when it was advised by the attending physicians that an operation may prolong his life. However, he became much worse and before the wishes of the family were carried out he passed away. He was seventy-two years of age, having been born in Monongalia county, Va., in 1827.

Mr. Furbee has been a very prominent factor in politics in this state, his name being known in all portions of it. He has been a member of both branches of its legislative body and also collector of internal revenue. He was also identified with the advancement of the free school cause. At the time of his death he was president of the First National Bank, of this city. He was also identified in the oil, farming and mercantile trades. He leaves a grown family of two daughters and seven sons to mourn his loss. Our city loses in him an ardent supporter to all its Christian societies and a promoter of its commercial interests. Collision of the Baltimore and Ohio Near Wilmington, Del.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 9.—During a heavy fog to-day, a rear-end collision occurred on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on the high bridge over the Brandywine river, in this city. A south-bound freight train parted by reason of a broken coupling, and the rear portion of the train stopped on the bridge. A south-bound passenger train closely following plunged into the caboose of the stalled section of the freight, and the caboose and freight car were thrown down the embankment. The passenger train, fortunately remained on the tracks of the bridge, which is 105 feet high.

The people on the passenger train were badly shaken by the collision. John Alden, of Philadelphia, United States Express Company messenger, had his arm broken; Conductor William Galloway, was severely cut by broken glass; John Macey, of Wilmington, was knocked unconscious, and sustained internal injuries. Others were cut and bruised, but not seriously.
